

The Numbers of Slavery from Past to Present

By Tim Kraft, Advised by Anthony Talbot Ph. D.
Political Science Department, University of Dayton

There are more slaves in the world now than ever before in human History! Remember, there are over 7 billion people on earth today.

In the height of Greco and Roman cultures, about 25% to 30 % of the population was slaves. Some of the Middle Ages cultures like that of Crimea had 75% of their population as slaves.

12 million slaves were traded during the African Slave Trade. In our modern day, there exists 27 million or most likely more slaves.

In all ancient cultures of our world dating all the way back to Egypt and Sumer, slaves existed but usually the numbers were lower than modern times.

